Pilanesberg Day Tour

Experience the Pilanesberg National Park like never before, packed with adventure and wildlife.

Pilanesberg National Park – South Africa's fourth largest game park is situated in a volcanic crater located within the Bojanala Region of the North West Province. This extinct volcano has developed into an internationally renowned tourist attraction which beholds a breathtaking and fascinating landscape that will provide any soul with invigoration and awe.

The park covers an area of 55 000 hectares. More than 7000 animals live here in a free and unhindered environment. Pilanesberg is home to the BIG 5 (elephant, rhino, leopard, buffalo and lion) and we guarantee that you will be able to tick off most on your list of game sightings! Other animals that you may encounter are zebra, giraffe, cheetah, hyena, hippo, crocodile, jackal, wild cat, various antelope as well as over 300 bird species...the list is endless.

Pilanesberg offers over 200 km of roads for guided or self-drive game viewing. On our tour you will enjoy an informative and highly entertaining game drive conducted by an experienced and knowledgeable tour guide who is eager to answer all your questions about the fascinating wildlife and environment. Bring your camera to eternally capture your African moments of our beautiful landscape and indigenous wildlife. After this full day adventure we head back to Johannesburg in the late afternoon. One thing is for sure: you will have plenty to talk about on the way back!
