Overview

On this tour you will visit different townships and the prison Mandela was incarcerated, giving you an overview of Mandela's struggle against Apartheid and its effects. It will also disclose how those affected continue to struggle for a better life today.

What to Expect

Your tour will start at the historical site of District Six, where inhabitants were forcibly removed according to the Group Areas Act of 1950 during the Apartheid era.

From there we will move on to Langa, the oldest township in Cape Town.

Next we travel to Bonteheuwel, a township developed from the forcibly removed District Six residents classified as colored. Learn about the rules in these townships and how they affected everyday life.
